Brammer Buck & Hickman announces exclusive new Spartex range

Brammer Buck & Hickman, the UK's leading supplier of industrial maintenance, repair and overhaul (MRO) products and services, has launched the Spartex range of everyday industrial essentials.

The Spartex brand has been introduced to make it simpler for customers to purchase and replenish operational and workplace essentials, such as chemicals, cleaning, storage, fasteners and work clothes. Brammer Buck & Hickman has researched and sourced a wide range of products, providing customers with choice, along with quality and competitive pricing. Spartex products are stocked in Brammer Buck & Hickman warehouses, enabling fast and efficient delivery, even at short notice.

Steve Seymour, Category Manager UK - Exclusive Brands, comments on the new Spartex brand: "We know customers are time poor, so by consolidating multiple sources of supply with a single trusted partner, Spartex provides everyday industrial essentials with minimum effort. Furthermore, customers benefit from our buying power and leveraging scale to ensure those products are competitively priced."

Spartex is exclusively available in the UK from Brammer Buck & Hickman.
