Interroll Ltd becomes the latest AMHSA member

Kettering, United Kingdom, August 4th, 2020. Interroll Ltd proudly announces successful acceptance into the Automated Material Handling Systems Association (AMHSA).

For the past 30 years, AMHSA—now with over 50 members—has acted as the voice of the United Kingdom automated material handling industry.

The association is committed to promoting excellence in the automated material handling industry in terms of solutions, after-sales support, reliability, and safety.

Leading global provider of material flow solutions Interroll Ltd, based in Kettering, Northants, will be able to further improve business operations as well as contribute to industry-shaping surveys, publications, and white papers.

“Interroll will benefit from the wealth of resources and access to collaborative support from the well-respected association, AMHSA”, said Hilton Campbell, Managing Director of Interroll Ltd. “We look forward to enhanced networking and best practice sharing opportunities with the other members and professionals in intralogistics in the near future. We will proudly display the membership plaque in our offices and the AMHSA logo on our local homepage”.

For more details, Interroll's member listing can be found on the AMHSA website:
