RENOVOTEC FORMS PARTNERSHIP WITH SOCIAL MOBILE

- Social Mobile’s fast-to-market mobility solutions will support Renovotec’s rapid expansion in doorstep delivery and field service markets
- Target sectors for the new partnership include transportation, logistics, healthcare, retail and hospitality

For immediate release 1 September 2022---Supply chain hardware, software and services company Renovotec has formed a partnership with enterprise mobility solutions specialist Social Mobile, the two companies announced today. Renovotec says the move will support its rapid expansion in doorstep delivery and field service markets.

Social Mobile provides mobility solution design and manufacturing services that bring innovative, enterprise-grade devices to market quickly and efficiently. The US-based company is an Android Enterprise certified partner that has deployed over 11 million devices worldwide, and was recently named as one of the ‘Inc. 5000’ fastest growing companies in America. Social Mobile devices are all made exclusively for global enterprise and are Google Mobile Services (GMS) certified.

Target sectors for the new partnership include transportation, logistics, healthcare, retail and hospitality, amongst others. Renovotec will distribute Social Mobile solutions in the UK and Ireland, providing support across the region.

“We select our partners for the value they bring to our marketplace and for the benefits of their products for our users” says Renovotec CEO Richard Gilliard. “Social Mobile is also notable for its strong focus on R&D and its speed of delivery from requirement to build.”

“Renovotec is a leader in the enterprise mobility space” says Social Mobile founder and CEO Robert Morcos. “They are the ideal partner to propel us into new markets and strengthen our foothold in Europe, where we can be a reliable supplier of rugged, enterprise devices and private label solutions to their customers.”
